

Dear Round Table Student,

Thank you so much for participating in the student roundtable youth indicators project. We are so excited to see the amazing work and collaboration you conduct over the summer with your family, friends and community.

GOAL: You may start working on your global action items right away, and submit them daily or once a week. You can submit 'photos, videos and/or written recaps' of your action items and the results.

Please submit your work to piliialoha@youthindicators.org

For participating in this student round table project, your name will be listed and recognized on our "Student Wall of Global Action" which will be included in the submission to the United Nations.

To have your name and work included, please have your parents sign the media release form below and return with your submissions.

We will be coordinating additional zoom round table meetings and displaying project results, so please check back on the website for periodic updates at: cityindesign.com/youth-indicators

Your school will also be reaching out to you when you start 7th grade classes for recaps and project updates.

We are so honored to have your 'voice and leadership' developing these amazing action items for the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

Please email us with any questions! ACT LOCAL! THINK GLOBAL!
